

The Charlottesville Center for Peace and Justice,

wishes everyone in Central Virginia a peaceful, caring holiday season. In this season, especially this year, with many families in America and around the world suffering the real pain and sorrow of war, we urge parents not to purchase toys or games that glamorize violence. Instead, let's play games, and have fun together as well as sharing peace, and compassion, the true gifts of the season.

The Charlottesville Center for Peace and Justice
www.charlottesvillepeace.org 434 961-6278